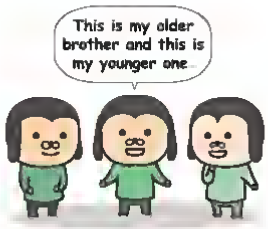
Tales of Penguin: Part 2

After a while...

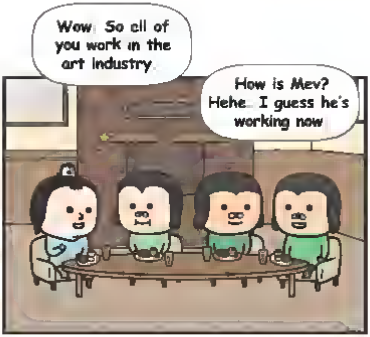
Seongdae's brothers joined us.



The three of them just had the same faces.

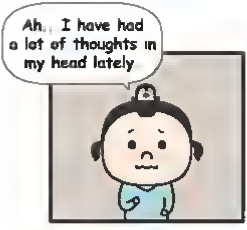
Maybe for that reason, I could spend a very comfortable time with Seongdae's brothers even though I had just met them.

We talked about their travel stories.



We caught up on each other's lives.

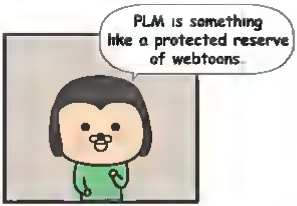
We also talked about silly things.

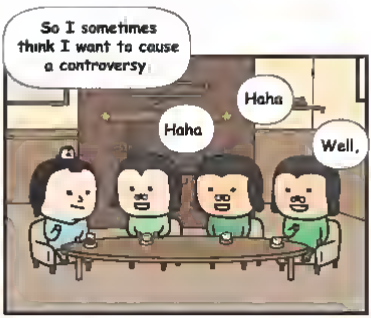


Of course, we couldn't miss talking about cartoons.

I shared my worries and we talked about our thoughts

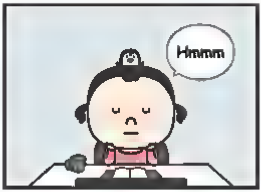
We shared encouragement too





Then we continued to talk about making controversies.

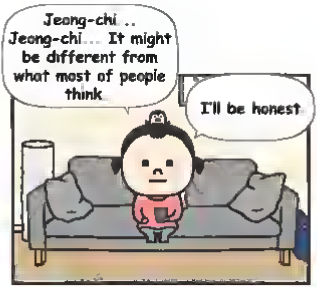
We talked about it like a joke.

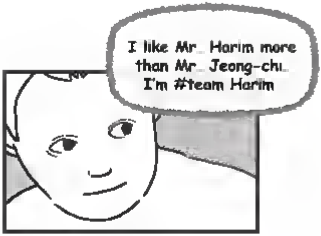


After I got back home,
I fell into deep thinking.

I decided to draw about that three controversial topics.

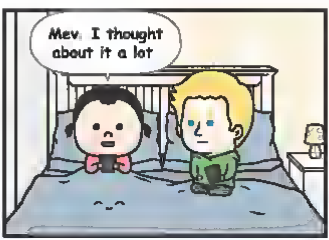
<정지: Jeong-chi=Politic>

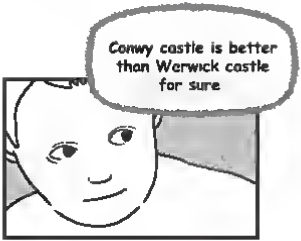




*Harim&Jeongchi: Singers
*정치(Jeongchi) means 'politics' or someone's name

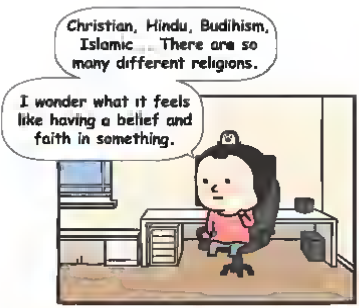
<성자별: Seong chabyul=sexism>





*성(Seong) means 'castle' or 'sex'
*차별(Chabyul) means 'discrimination'

<종교: Jongkyo=religion>



Christian, Hindu, Budihism, Islamic ... There are so many different religions.
I wonder what it feels like having a belief and faith in something.

I love Naver
Naver is the best
Loyalty to Naver!

.
.
.